

Psalm 5(Hold us Fast)

Words/Music: Benjamin Brainard CCLI #: 7057850 More Information: ImmanuelMusic.org

Intro: Eb—Bb—Ab--Eb

Verse 1

Eb

Bb

Ab

Eb

Oh listen when I call and hear the groaning of my tongue

Eb

Bb

Ab

Eb

The voice that beckons my maker near has been bought by Your Son

Gm

Ab

Eb

Bb

In the morning time you hear my song and as I watch and wait

Cm

Ab

Eb

Bb

Oh You pour on me the blessings of Your steadfast love and grace

Ab

Intro

Oh Your steadfast love and grace.

Verse 2

For you do not delight in sin, the boastful cannot stand

Before the holy judge of men their wickedness is plain

But I through your astounding love with joy will enter in

Where Christ has won my freedom from the bondage of my sin

Oh The bondage of my sin

Verse 3

So lead my trembling feet ahead and guard me on the way

My enemies would see me dead, their mouths an open grave

You're just to make them bear their guilt, but you love to remake

And soften every stubborn heart and in Your mercy save

Oh God please come and save

Verse 4

So let us all in joyous song, lift high Your mighty name

The Name that has redeemed us all and covered all our shame,

You cover us with favor; and shield us from Your wrath

You pour upon us blessing still, in Christ You hold us fast

In Christ You hold us fast, In Christ You hold us fast