Verse 1

Am E Am

Now to set the stage, this story's real, it is not fake
There was a kingdom born, under a curse, under shame

Verse 2

Once upon a time there were four kings in this story of mine
The first had a thirst to rule apart from those he served

Verse 3

Seeking freedom from the nations that God set out to love
The second joined the first lost in their rage, lost in their worth

Chorus

Dm Am E7 Am

Therefore be warned, therefore be wise
Kings of the earth still bleed and die

Dm Am E Dm E7 Am

All that you have is not yours at all, not yours at all

Verse 4

The third king comes around sought by ones wanting a crown
Instead of God as king they wanted this to see and believe

Chorus 2

Therefore be wise therefore be warned
Kings of the earth to the earth will return
All that you have is not yours at all, not yours at all

Verse 5

Now onto the fourth, this king would come to restore
He came to save and serve seeking the lost to the ends of the earth

G Am E Am

His reign would know no end, no more kings to burden His land

G Am E Am

The curse would be no more, and this is how it ends

Chorus 3

Therefore be warned, therefore be wise
Follow this king for you He died
All that you have will waste away, come follow Him to the end of days
