

When Seasons Come and Seasons Go

Lyrics: James Montgomery, 1822, Henry Frances Lyte, 1834, Alt. Words: Benjamin Brainard

Music: Benjamin Brainard More Information: Immanuelmusic.org CCLI #: 7094035

Intro: |A---|C#m---|A-B-|

E A E A

Verse 1 Oh God, You are my God alone what else could satisfy?

E A E A

Refresh with grace my panting heart these earthly springs are dry

C#m A E (walk up) B-->

When through this rough and thorny maze Your hand upholds my way

G#/C--C#m A E A

I freely yield all my designs to trust You and obey

A E~ B A E~ B

Chorus When seasons come and seasons go your steadfast love will be my hold

A C#m

My lips will praise You, my heart will bless You

A B C#m E B Intro

Let every doubt strike this defence; Christ is my truest confidence

Verse 2 When through the watches of the night when all is dark and deep

You comfort me at midnight hours addressing every need

For whom have I in heaven above or on this earth below

Who comforts every afflicted one and on me mercy flows

Verse 3 In every season of my life in rain and blessed light

When wickedness abounds and seems yet hidden from your sight

Remind my soul that harvest time will soon come like a thief

The dead will rise, the Judge will speak, and peace will never cease